

Larger Than Life Texan Biographical Report

By now you should know quite a bit about your Texan. Now it's time to organize your notes into a short biographical report about the person. Your report should include the follow paragraphs:

INTRODUCTION: Introduce your “Larger Than Life” Texan by discussing why you chose this person.

What do you admire about this individual?

What qualities does he/she have that make him/her outstanding?

In what ways do you identify with or look up to your Texan?

BODY: Include several paragraphs in this part of the report.

What biographical events about the person's life have you learned, including: birth, childhood facts, education, interests, and activities?

What was the person like before he/she became famous?

What are the important events, accomplishments, or awards that make this Texan outstanding? How did he/she become famous?

CONCLUSION: Sum up why this person is a “Larger Than Life” Texan.

What has he/she contributed to the state of Texas ?

What lessons have you learned from studying this person's life?

What can we all learn from this “Larger Than Life” Texan?